

California Department of Motor Vehicles

Public Workshop

Autonomous Vehicles
Light-Duty Motortrucks (Delivery Vehicles)

Friday, October 19, 2018

10:00AM

California State Capitol

Room 4203

Facilitator:

Brian G. Soublet

Deputy Director and Chief Counsel

Department of Motor Vehicles

- I. Opening
 - A. Introductions
 - B. Housekeeping
- II. Discussion of Policy and Regulatory Areas (attached)
- III. Next Steps
- IV. Closing Remarks

- I. Autonomous motortrucks (light-duty delivery vehicles)
 - a. What types of vehicles are being developed?
 - Are driverless vehicles being contemplated?
 - Weight classifications or other vehicle features?
 - b. Possible uses of autonomous delivery vehicles?
- II. Should testing of autonomous motortrucks be allowed?
 - a. What requirements or conditions should manufacturers meet prior to or during testing on public roads?
- III. Should the deployment of autonomous motortrucks be allowed?
 - a. What data or certifications should be presented to demonstrate readiness for deployment?
- IV. Other regulatory requirements in addition to a DMV Autonomous Vehicle Permit – any modifications needed for autonomous vehicles?
 - a. Motor Carrier Permit requirements
 - b. Fleet operations
 - c. Inspections requirements
- V. Other considerations
 - a. Anticipated economic impacts
 - Businesses (including small businesses)
 - Jobs
 - Revenue generation
 - b. Local impacts
 - c. Infrastructure impacts
 - d. Safety impacts and interaction with other road users
- VI. Public suggestions for regulatory language
- VII. Other discussion items